37. Q: Discretion is a chief component in the daily performance of the position of Police Officer. Give an example from your own life in which you had to use discretion and relate it to police work.

A: Once when on an ambulance we had to use discretion on a mentally ill patient who had a mental breakdown. Men would trigger the mental breakdown more so we had to use discretion when taking them to hospital that men wouldn't approach patient and make thing worse. So as a police officer some people wouldn't want a certain sex to touch them in like this scenario then i would try to make the person as calm as possible and call for back up if they didn't want a female touching them since I'm a female.
