Arresting Officer Signature on behalf of JLB 2024 Date

3. The facts in support of the probable cause for the warrantless arrest of the above named suspect are as follows:

(Enter Narrative Here)

On Tuesday, September 08, 2026, at approximately 1020 hours I, Deputy Rotering, was dispatched to a domestic violence call at 10976 East Cherokee Ln in unincorporated Douglas County, CO. On this day I was working with Field Training Officer Deputy Bozarth who was with me throughout the duration of this call.

Douglas County Department of Human Services forwarded a report regarding Ryan Colley (DOB: 01-20-92) and [redacted] The report stated that Ryan told [redacted] he was "going to kill her" during a very intense argument. Additionally, Ryan has been making "intense suicidal comments and gestures."

I spoke with [redacted] n person. The following is a brief synopsis of what she told me:

She and Ryan have been married since 2013 and have two [redacted] together, [redacted] (DOB: [redacted]) and [redacted] (DOB: [redacted]). They have had marital issues since the beginning of their relationship. On August 30, 2026, approximately around 1300-1400 hours she and Ryan got into an argument. He was yelling and cursing at her while she was doing dishes in their kitchen. He escalated further by walking up to her and placing his closed fist approximately 1-2 inches away from her nose and saying, "I want to". They separated and he followed up by asking her, "Are you going to cry now?".

NARRATIVE CONTINUATION

Later, the same evening, between 1700-1800 hours (approximately) Ryan and [redacted] began arguing again. Ryan grew increasingly agitated with [redacted] and [redacted] asked Ryan to leave so he could cool off but he refused initially. [redacted] asked Ryan's mom to intervene Eventually, he began to leave but then pointed at [redacted] and said, "I'm going to kill you." Both [redacted] and [redacted] were present during the argument and when Ryan told [redacted] he was going to kill her. Ryan's mom, [redacted] told me that Ryan said he wanted to kill himself and [redacted] during this argument. [redacted] also confirmed the [redacted] were present during this.

I later spoke with Ryan in person, and he confirmed all of the events except puting his first in [redacted]'s face and stating "he was going to kill" her.

Ryan was placed into custody and transported to the Douglas County Jail, where he was held.
