

Jazmine N. Striegel
9451 Welby RD, APT 821
Thornton, CO 80229
striegeljazmine@gmail.com
719-980-0809
17 Aug 2023

Objective:

Dedicated and disciplined individual with 9 years of experience as a Hospital Corpsman in the United States Navy, seeking an entry-level Police Officer position at the Boulder Police Department. Eager to leverage my medical expertise, strong sense of duty, and commitment to community safety in serving the Boulder community.

Education:

Bachelor of Arts in Integrative Physiology and Neuroscience | University of Colorado Boulder

Hospital Corpsman 'A' School | United States Navy

Aerospace Medical Technician School | United States Navy

Experience:

Hospital Corpsman | United States Navy | Aug 2015-Present

- Provided critical medical care to service members, including emergency interventions, patient assessments, and medication administration.
- Collaborated with medical professionals in surgeries and procedures, ensuring optimal patient outcomes.
- Maintained accurate medical records and ensured the readiness of medical equipment for rapid response situations.
- Conducted training on medical procedures and safety protocols, contributing to the overall health and well-being of the unit.
- Demonstrated adaptability and quick medical decision-making in diverse and challenging environments.

Skills:

- Emergency Medical Procedures
- Patient Assessment
- Team Collaboration
- Attention to Detail
- Strong Communication
- Leadership Skills

Certifications:

- Basic Life Support Provider
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support Provider
- Tactical Combat Casualty Care Provider
- Wilderness First Aid Responder
- Hospital Corpsman Skills Basic