

FYI.....,

My msg to Mike Swartz:

I have some bad news man. [REDACTED] parents were just here for an hour showing me about 150 text msgs between you and [REDACTED]. I gotta say that is highly inappropriate for someone your age and in your position to be texting a [REDACTED] year old girl like that. I don't really know what to say about it, but they said if I didn't do something about it then they were going to file a complaint with the Eaton PD. I warned you and told you that you were gonna get yourself in trouble with that shit, and now it's here. I'm sorry man, I really enjoyed being friends with you and getting to know you, and I think you just made a stupid mistake, but now I'm in a position that I have to do something about it. So it sucks but I can't let you train here anymore. I didn't put us in this position, you did.
