He started becoming closer than wanted around January and February. During that time I told him (mikel) to leave me alone and to give me space. He always asked what he did wrong and what he could do to fix it. I told him he did nothing wrong and to stop talking to me but he still continued to ask. Then in march I told him over text to ~~leave me~~ stop texting me completely. He was still coming to class, I was very uncomfortable doing my job while he was there.
