Why are you seeking employment with the Teller County Sheriff's Office? And, why do you feel qualified for the position for which you have applied?

With everything going on in the United States, from police reform politics and to defund the police, I feel the need to pursue and reinstate my oath I took for the United States Marine Corps. I would like to feel like I am making a difference in my community a sense of camaradery and belonging. The neighborhood I currently live in, I hear gun shots, drive bys, see crimes and police constantly patrolling. I want to make this state a safer place at night without people having the fear of leaving a home at night, I feel the same calling to help do my duty to this country when I joined the Marine Corps. I want my future children to feel pride and safety within their father for what he does. I want to make a difference in this community I call home.

I feel qualified for this position for not only previously serving my country, but for the skills it gave me. Along with the life skills I have acquired since. From my ability to relate to people to martial arts background and my ability to succeed in any environment I'm in. I believe I have the ability to succeed as a detentions officer for Teller County, and help make my community a safer place. I have a military background structure, organizational and procedure following process. I am determined to serve my country yet again and make a change.
