A: Since leaving the Military in 2019, I have always had this feeling of having more to offer and that I am capable of more. I love having a greater purpose in life and I think I could be extremely useful in this field. I have mostly just been working out more to be physically prepared.

37. Q: Discretion is a chief component in the daily performance of the position of Police Officer. Give an example from your own life in which you had to use discretion and relate it to police work.

A: During my time in the Army I have had subordinate soldiers and deciding if things had to be taken up to higher ups or resolved within our team, we used discretion. I think this would come into play with police work because it had allowed me to think quick on my feet and decide if there might be a bigger threat.

38. Q: If you are or have been a Law Enforcement Officer, are you under investigation for or have you had a sustained Brady Violation?

A: No

39. Q: If you are selected for the Police Officer position and attend the Academy, you will be asked to commit to the Northglenn Police Department for at least 3 years. Do you understand this commitment?
